The 2019 Shimano 24 Hours Cycling (Le Mans)

Registrations are open to the first 540 teams!

The 11th edition of the Shimano 24 Hours Cycling will take place on August 24th and 25th 2019, on the 4,185 meters of the Bugatti Circuit of Le Mans. 540 teams are expected for start, including 80 singles and 40 pairs ...

Registrations are open since November 20th on www.24heuresvelo.fr/en/ and a special rate is offered for all registration before February 28th.

This cyclosporive is accessible to everyone, over 18 years old. Everyone will find its pleasure, depending on the chosen category: 2, 4, 6 or 8 riders per team, and even alone for long distance amateur. This mixture of profiles set the friendly atmosphere both in the pits and on the track. Although every year everyone get caught up in this game of competition in order to give the best for his team... even when it comes to climbing on his saddle in the middle of the night.

More than 2,500 participants will try to cover the greatest number of laps in 24 hours, while taking relays of one hour on average.

If you still hesitate to get into this cyclosporive adventure by team relay, the 2019 teaser will convince you.
